Rev. C. S. McFarland, D.D.,
612 United Charities Bldg.,
105 East 22nd Street, New York.

Dear Dr. McFarland:

I am sorry that I am not in a position to undertake any more financial obligations at present than I am committed to. With our various patriotic and Red Cross funds in Canada and our Belgian and Serbian relief funds, now extending over the three years of the war, we are finding it increasingly difficult to raise money, and I know that I ought not to undertake what you ask of me.

Frotstly, however, the regular churches would be interested in the work of the American Huguenot Committee. I am rather at a loss to know what names to suggest to you as likely ones to take the matter up. Perhaps if you were to correspond in the Presbyterian Church with Rev. Dr. Somerville, in the Methodist Church with Rev. Dr. Chown, the Anglican Church with Venerable Archdeacon Cody, and the Baptist Church with Rev. Professor Gilmour of McMaster University, they might be able to organize a fund for this work.

Yours sincerely,

President.
